DIRECTOR OR PROSPECTORS' ASSISTANCE
MINISTRY OF ENERGY, MINES AND PETROLEUM RESOURCES
200 - 756 FORT ST.,
VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA
V8W 3A3

13th ANNUAL
ADVANCED PROSPECTING COURSE
COWICHAN LAKE RESEARCH STATION
MESACHIE LAKE, B.C.

APRIL 24 to MAY 11, 1989.

Ministry of Energy, Mines and
Petroleum Resources
Application

Fee: $49.00 - to be submitted with

The course is open to anyone holding a valid Research Association membership. Research Association members receive a discount on the course fee.

The course is located at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver Campus, in the Engineering Building. Accommodation and meals are available on site.

The course is offered in March and April of each year. Please apply early to ensure a place in the course.

Applicants must have a working knowledge of geological and geophysical methods and equipment. A basic understanding of geology and geophysics is required.

Applicants must have completed an undergraduate degree in geology or a related field or have equivalent experience. A minimum of five years of professional experience in geological or geophysical exploration is also required.

The course is offered by the University of British Columbia and is open to all interested individuals.

For more information, please contact the University of British Columbia, Continuing Studies, 6325 North Road, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4, or call 604-822-7720.

Please send an application form for the 1989 Advanced Prospecting Course, to:

[Address]

[City]

[Postal Code]

[Telephone: Home]

[Telephone: Work]

[Name]

The course will be offered in two parts:

Part 1: (March 1-5) Practical geological and geophysical methods

Part 2: (April 1-5) Advanced geological and geophysical techniques

The course is open to anyone holding a valid Research Association membership. Research Association members receive a discount on the course fee.

The course is located at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver Campus, in the Engineering Building. Accommodation and meals are available on site.

The course is offered in March and April of each year. Please apply early to ensure a place in the course.

Applicants must have a working knowledge of geological and geophysical methods and equipment. A basic understanding of geology and geophysics is required.

Applicants must have completed an undergraduate degree in geology or a related field or have equivalent experience. A minimum of five years of professional experience in geological or geophysical exploration is also required.

The course is offered by the University of British Columbia and is open to all interested individuals.

For more information, please contact the University of British Columbia, Continuing Studies, 6325 North Road, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4, or call 604-822-7720.

Please send an application form for the 1989 Advanced Prospecting Course, to:

[Address]

[City]

[Postal Code]

[Telephone: Home]

[Telephone: Work]

[Name]